Letter of Congratulation

To Hosts of the 1st National Conference of Chinese Medicine:

On the occasion of the opening of the 1st National Conference of Chinese Medicine and US Chinese Medicine Development Strategy Forum, on behalf of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies, I would like to extend warm congratulation on the conference.

U.S. ushered in a whole new era of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) practice since 1975, and serves as a key base for overseas TCM development nowadays. The 1st National Conference of Chinese Medicine, hosted by seven TCM associations, gathers global TCM scholars and industry elites to focus on the blueprint for TCM advancement in America. As the biggest international academic NGO of TCM, we would like to extend our sincere admiration and gratitude for all the TCM communities in U.S. for your concerted efforts.

I wish the conference a great success. I wish more cooperation between WFCMS and TCM communities in U.S. would be carried out to accelerate TCM communication, and to make more solid contribution for TCM advancement in America and in the whole world.
